

I urge you to reject the National Association of broadcasters petition 04-160. It seems the NAB is afraid of competition in local markets. If you look back in history you will product. In this case the local broadcasters are afraid they will need to innovate and become competitive to survive. I say this will make radio better for everyone. find in the 1940's, radio broadcasters tried to squash television. In the 1970's, AM broadcasters tried to put the kibosh on FM stations. Competition is what fuels the marketplace. Lack of competition results in a stagnant
